Part II Organizational Action Attach additional statements if needed. See back of form for additional questions.

- 14 Describe the organizational action and, if applicable, the date of the action or the date against which shareholders' ownership is measured for the action ► On August 31, 2020, the Board of Directors of Sempra Energy ("Sempra") declared a quarterly common stock dividend which will be paid on October 15, 2020, to holders of record of common stock as of the close of business on September 25, 2020. As a result of this cash dividend to common stockholders, effective October 15, 2020, the Conversion Rate as which each share of 6.00% Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, Series A ("Series A") can be converted into common stock was increased. The value of the Conversion Rate increase is a deemed distribution for tax purposes.
- 15 Describe the quantitative effect of the organizational action on the basis of the security in the hands of a U.S. taxpayer as an adjustment per share or as a percentage of old basis ► The Expected Minimum and Maximum Adjusted Conversion Rates increased from 0.7712 and 0.9448 shares of Sempra preferred stock to 0.7727 and 0.9466 shares, respectively, of Sempra common stock for each Series A share. The value of the increase at the Expected Minimum and Maximum Adjusted Conversion Rates is 0.0015 and 0.0018, respectively, per Series A share. To the extent supported by Earnings & Profits, the minimum 0.0015 or maximum 0.0018 per share is taxable to Series A holders and increases tax basis in their Series A stock. Sempra currently anticipates having adequate Earnings & Profits to support that the entire minimum 0.0015 or maximum 0.0018 per share is taxable. Should Sempra's Earnings & Profits be inadequate to support the entire minimum 0.0015 or maximum 0.0018 as taxable, this Form 8937 will be revised.
- 16 Describe the calculation of the change in basis and the data that supports the calculation, such as the market values of securities and the valuation dates ► See attachment.
